INCENDIO RETURNS TO RIDGECREST!

This exciting Grammy-nominated "World Music" instrumental group will, once again, electrify a Ridgecrest audience with its bold, exotic international sound and cinematic onstage presence. In many languages, INCENDIO translates to "fire." You will soon learn why!

The Historical Society of the Upper Mojave Desert is proud to present this landmark encore musical event Friday, February 27 at 8 p.m. at the Historic USO Building, 230 W. Ridgecrest Blvd. Tickets are on sale now at the Historic USO for $20 per person and $35 per couple. Please call 760-375-8456 for more information.

* The Ridgecrest Veterans Advisory Council is looking for volunteers, willing to donate their free time to rally for the needs of the Indian Wells Valley Veterans. Our board has three to five essential director positions that aid the Chairperson, for one to two years, in the planning and implementation of the annual September Stand Down along with additional events to be identified and prioritized for the period prior to and after the Stand Down. Two of the board positions will be a Secretary and a Treasurer and a basic understanding of 501c3 requirements is desirable. All persons involved in the operation of the RVAC are volunteers that give of their time freely, to serve those that have served for our freedom. For information please call Nick Coy at 760-608-1484.
